TWO YELLOW TAXICAB DRIVERS ARRESTED FOR DEFYING NEW LAW

Unlicensed Chauffeurs Refuse to Accept Summons and Are Locked Up.

Following a tour of inspection throughout the upper Tenderioin for alleged violations of the new taxicab ordinance. two chauffeurs describing themselves as George 8. Martin of No. 474 Utica avenue and Louis Propper of No. 474 East One Hundred and Twelfth street, were arrested late last night by Patrolman Smith of Traffic C on complaint of inspectors of Licenses Burke and Eschardt. The men were charged with violation of the taxi ordinance. Following their refusal to accept summonses from the inspectors an additional charge of disorderly conduct was made against them.

The two inspectors were walking through Forty-seventh street when in front of the Cort Theatre they saw twy yellow taxicabs with the flag on the taximeter down. They asked the chaufeurs if they had public hacking licenses, and upon receiving a negative reply tried to serve a summons on each of them. The chauffeurs refused to accept the summons and Patrolman Smith placed them under arrest.

WHAT MARIE DRESSLER THINKS OF NEWPORT.

What Newport looks like to Marie Dressler, the comedienne, is told in the Migazine and Story Section of next Sunday's World. "Only 100 people to see $1,000,000 in clothes" is the way the actress phrases it. Among other special features are:

A Oirl Scout Alds Safe-Blowing Corsairs of Long Island Sound.
Inspection of and report on New Tork's first church speeding parlor.

Some of Newport's best dressed women.

Final Instalment of 'The Masked

Bride."
"Disaster in September Stars," by Frank Theodore Allen.
Lillian Belle, pilot of the Hiram, whose captain is Mrs. Georgia Orne.
A Furitain maid, the "Blue Goddess" of the Folies in Paris.
Now it's a beauty doctor for dogs.
A page of Music, "Let's Go to Savannah, Ga.," a lively song of the period.

TRYING TO CATCH TRAIN MAN GETS BROKEN RIBS

Brakeman Is Caught in an Elevator and Has to Be Chopped Out.

Michael Kiffert's haste to catch a train at the Mott Haven station of the New York Central Railroad this morning resulted in serious injuries to the man and a narrow escape from death. Kiffert, who is forty-five years old and lives at No. 649 Morris avenue, the Brenx, is a brakeman employed on the Central and was a little late in starting

As he neared the station he saw his train pulling in and realized that his only chance is making it was to leap on a freight elevator that was just starting on its upward journey.

Kiffert made the jump and landed a fely on the moving ear, but his feet safely on the moving car, but his feet slipped and before the car could be stopped his legs were caught and crushed betwen the floor of the elevator and the walls. Other employees made an unsuccessful effort to dislodge the body of the agonized man, but no progress was made until the arrival of Fire Truck No. 17. By that time Kiffert had lost consciousness Axes freed him and an ambulance conveyed him to the Lincoln Hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from broken ribs and severe injuries

(Copied from a Paris Model.)

Chiffon and the fashionable Roman-striped Silk are cleverly com-bined in the new BLOUSE, Over a foundation of white chiffon Valenciennes lace-trimmed, tucked chiffon-cloth in deep navy blue, black or taupe is softly draped in kimono blouse effect. The gay "Roman" silk forms the wide panel at the back, the smart waistcoat effect and the cutfs.

The vest is of net daintily embroidered and tiny frills of the net edge the low neck and the cuffs. Cords and tassels add an odd but effective finishing touch at the wrists. Sizes 34 to 44.

Third Place, 84th M.

Women's TOPCOATS, Just from LONDON, $24.74

Smart new model, thoroughly English both in its clever cut and excellent tailoring. Cut on loose, swinging lines, these full-length Coats fasten far to the side with large buttons, and at the back the oddly cut seams are button trimmed. The deep shawl collar, which may be worn buttoned snugly up to the throat, the rolling cuffs and large patch pockets add to its mannish style.

In soft "warmth-without-weight" English fleece cloth, in gray, brown or heather mixtures. Sizes 34 to 44.

Third Floor, Broadway.

Fall FASHIONS in MISSES Tailored SUITS and COATS

Autumn's most distinctive models are distinguished by their simplicity, the beauty of their fabrics, and their clever cut, rather than by any elaborate trimming effects. Of especial interest in the Macy collection are the Suits copied from the Paris models of such famous style creators as Bechoff-David, Jeanne Lanvin and others almost equally notable. Faird Floor, Broadway.

All models advertised are in stock in sizes 14, 16 and 18 years. Cutaway Suits $27.75 of Diagonal Cheviot,

Illustrated. Long, sharply bias lines and oddly cut panel-effects give to the 3-button cutaway coat its very smart air. The pointed collar is of contrasting velvet with simulated buttonholes piped in gay colors. A novel feature is the draped panel inset at the sides of the slashed
